Venice sets up student discipline advisory group

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Staff writer

VENICE — One of the first school districts in this area to establish a Parent-Teacher Advisory Committee is Venice.

Action required to set up the committee occurred at Thursday night's meeting of the Board of Education.

SUCH ADVISORY groups are mandated by the Illinois Education Reform Act, enacted in 1985, and must include parents and teachers working in conjunction with the school board.

Appointed to serve on the pupil discipline committee were six parents — John Williams, Melvin Burton, Annie R. Mosby, Carolyn Wilson, William Ingram and Cynthia Crawford — and three teachers, Mary Harper, Linda Cottrell and Rick Everage.

They will be joined by school board members Patricia King, George Wade and David Levy and three district administrators, Superintendent of Schools Robert N. Vickers, Venice High School Principal John Rush and Venice Grade School Principal Seth Kirkpatrick.

THE COMMITTEE'S initial meeting is scheduled at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 4, at the board office, Vickers announced. He said an agenda is being prepared for the first session.

According to the new law, the committee is charged with establishing and maintaining policy guidelines on pupil discipline.

The policy must provide that a teacher may remove a student from a classroom for disruptive behavior and there must be provisions for subsequent due process, Vickers said.

COPIES OF POLICY guidelines must be furnished to the parents or guardians of each pupil within 15

Protested taxes could affect MESD

By SUSANNE INDELICATO

GRANITE CITY — Taxpayers who are protesting their property taxes in St. Clair County could affect the income of the bi-county Metro-East Sanitary District.

News of $8.2 million in protested 1984 taxes (four times the average annual amount of protested taxes) comes as MESD officials are trying to put together the levee district's 1986 budget.

"THE MONEY (the protested taxes) is held in escrow until the court rules on the protests," MESD Executive Director Shang Greathouse said Thursday. "It could go up to $10 million. Our money has stopped coming in from St. Clair County."

The MESD encompasses portions of western Madison and St. Clair counties.

Of the $66 million in tax bills sent out in St. Clair County for the 1984 tax year (1985 collection), 12 percent of the tax dollars are being protested, Greathouse said.

HE FEARS 12 percent of MESD's $645,000 share of tax revenues from St. Clair County also will be held in Local detective gets

Assignment in Guatemala

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Staff writer

At a time when most Americans are questioning the safety of overseas flights, even to relatively secure countries, a Granite City man has made his first trip into the volatile Central America region.

Sunday focus

Deep in the primitive interior of Guatemala at the small village of San Juan Cotzal, Fred Hoffman is facing himself in a new and demanding role — that of an unpaid day laborer.

"I EXPECT TO come back with a clearer idea what I need to do in life, what God is wanting us — me and my family — to be involved in," Hoffman said before leaving here last week.

Meeting hazards face to face is not unfamiliar to Hoffman, a Granite City police detective and juvenile officer.

He exchanged his duties as a policeman to become a working day missionary for two weeks.

MISSIONARY may not be a description Hoffman would choose for himself, nor one he even likes.

But his voluntary undertaking to aid people whose way of life is almost beyond our understanding of basic, day-to-day survival comes pretty close to a mission of love and faith, friends say.

In Cotzal, Hoffman and his companions will pour the foundation for a small church and possibly frame it if time permits.

"ABOUT 500 PEOPLE in that

area have become Christians and what they've asked for is a church," he said.

The volunteer churchmen also will construct several "widow's houses" in Cotzal.

Hoffman explained such "houses" are basic one-room shelters, about 8 feet by 8 feet, and are for women and children whose husbands have been drafted into the military.

"A WOMAN WITHOUT a man apparently is not entitled to shelter and is ejected from the dwelling when the man leaves," he said.

Frequently, the woman must hire, out as a slave to others in the community to get shelter and food for herself and the children, Hoffman learned.

"They are thrilled to death to get just one room," he said.

HOFFMAN IS DEEPLY committed to helping his fellow man while functioning on an equally dedicated basis in a policeman's job — protecting and preserving the rights of citizens and putting away those people infringing on others.

The dual commitment can't always be an easy task, but friends say that Hoffman successfully balances his humanitarian principles with the instincts and reactions required of a police officer.

His home for two weeks in San Juan Cotzal is in the mountainous central part of Guatemala, at an elevation of about 8,000 feet.

"It is really primitive. There are parasites in the water, so you can't drink it, and there are rats around. We've been told to take flea collars — and flea powder to sprinkle in our sleeping bags."

BEFORE LEAVING Granite City, Hoffman said his group of Christian men would board a plane in New Orleans for Guatemala.

The group consists mainly of members of the South Kansas City Fellowship Church. Several of the men have made earlier trips to the region, Hoffman explained.

John Hartman, assistant pastor of Victory Fellowship Church in St. Louis, also is among the volunteers. The Hoffman family attends Son-Life Fellowship Church in Collinsville.

THE TACA AIRLINES plane was scheduled to stop in El Salvador. "We don't expect to get off the plane there," he said.

Upon arrival in Guatemala City,

O'BRIEN TIRE AND SERVICE is the first service station in the Quad-City Area to lower its price of regular gasoline to under a dollar a gallon. Mark Buenger, manager of the station at Nameoki and Pontoon roads, flips over the number nine Friday morning, lowering the price of a gallon of regular gasoline by nine cents. No-lead gasoline is now 10 cents lower per gallon at $1.049. Other stations are expected to lower their prices in the near future.

Venice bridge traffic continuing to increase

By VALERIE EVENEDEN

Staff writer
VENICE — Traffic crossing the McKinley Bridge increased again in December. Tom Fields, bridge manager, reported Tuesday night to the City Council.

Bridge use was not the only figure rising last month in Venice.
THE CITY received a $4,503 check from Circuit Court Clerk Willard Portell for fines collected, primarily through issuance of 80 city and 17 state traffic tickets.

Police Chief Farris Smith said 105 adults and four juveniles were arrested in December.
An average of 14,652 vehicles crossing the McKinley Bridge on a daily basis last month represented an increase of 1,018 vehicles per day compared to December 1984.

TOTAL VEHICULAR traffic using the city-owned Mississippi River span during the month amounted to 454,216 vehicles, Fields said.

A resolution was adopted authorizing condemnation proceedings against the owners of property at 701 Broadway, a two-story frame dwelling.

The house is in disrepair, a hazard to public safety and in violation of state and city codes, report from the city's building inspector alleged.

DUE TO THE SERIOUS nature of the property's condition, the owners were ordered to put the dwelling into safe condition or demolish it within 15 days of the resolution's adoption.

A lien will be filed against the property should the city have to carry out the demolition work, it was said.
Possible removal of a mobile home in the 1000 block of Third Street also was discussed again.

"THE TRAILER is still there and the man is working on it. He's repairing it and said he's going to sell it," Building Inspector Joe Brooks said.

"I told you to take the police down there and move it out, at the last meeting," Mayor Tyrone Echols said. "It should be on a concrete pad and tied down or it has to go," he stressed.

The owner informed Wilson he had not received permission to place the mobile home on the lot, it was reported Jan. 7.

THE MAYOR reminded council members of a resident attending a recent meeting and asking permission to place a mobile home on a vacant lot.

"We refused him unless he could meet the city code with a concrete pad and tie-downs. But he did come to the council," Echols said.

First Ward Alderman John Fleig asked what action has been taken on a derelict house in the 200 block of Kerr Street.

"They should be getting it boarded up this weekend," City Attorney Lawrence Hartman said.

SUPERINTENDENT of Streets Tom Scaturro reported the city's new 11-purposes GMC dump-hoist truck has been delivered.

The 1985 Brigadier model truck, which cost $42,800, is fully equipped and capable of spreading asphalt and salt, among other functions.

Fourth Ward Alderman Victor Valentine Sr. asked for clarification of a statement made at the last meeting. "The 20 bottles I mentioned picking up were all along Weaver Street. I only picked up a couple in front of Adam's Market," Valentine said.

A businessman was offended at the remark attributed to the alderman, who was complaining about persons sitting in cars drinking and throwing bottles on the sidewalk in that vicinity.

APPRECIATION was expressed by the Rev. Harold Wilson, president of the Madison-Venice Branch of the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People), to the mayor and aldermen for their support in helping to make the Martin Luther King Jr. observance in the community a success.

A memorial march and services were well attended Jan. 19 in Venice.

"I want to thank all of you personally for your support of the observance — the first time in history a national holiday has honored a Black man," the NAACP officer said.

2 audiologists at SEMC licensed

The 1984 Illinois hearing aid Consumer Protection Act (Public Act 83-0928) requires all persons dispensing hearing aids to be licensed. Two St. Elizabeth Medical Center employees, Cheryl Siegel Gieves, director of audiology, and David Hefner, clinical audiologist, have received such licenses from the Illinois Department of Public Health.

Previously, licensing was not required by the state but by the end of 1986, everyone involved with the dispensing of hearing aids must be licensed.

"This law is simply one of consumer protection," said Mrs. Gieves. "It was meant to help people who have been, unfortunately, taken advantage of when purchasing or repairing hearing aid devices. A number of states also have this licensing requirement. In fact, Missouri has such a law."

To receive a license, individuals must first pass a written test and a practicum, comprised of four sections.

"The written test contains information on client gathering, examining the ear, hearing measurements, testing procedures, federal and state regulations, and the selection, fitting and servicing of hearing aids."

"The practicum includes sections on ear mold impressions, pure tone audiometry, speech audiometry and hearing aids."

An SEMC associate for seven years, she received her degree in audiology from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in 1977. Hefner received his master's of science degree in audiology from SIUE in 1980 and has been an SEMC associate for three years.

The Audiology Department dispenses hearing aids from either its office in the medical center in Granite City or the Ginger Creek Hearing Center, just south of the SIUE campus. Appointments are arranged for either location by calling 798-3616, Monday through Saturday, during business hours.

Firewood use has doubled

Firewood has become a hot item in Illinois, and most people still cut their own.

A statewide study of firewood production has found that more than 1.6 million cords of firewood are cut each year. That is the equivalent of a pile of wood four feet wide, four feet high and nearly 2,500 miles long.

More than 99 percent is cut by homeowners. The rest is cut and sold by commercial producers.

These results were reported by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Forest Service in a new publication called "Fuelwood Production and Sources from Roundwood in Illinois, 1983." The research was done by USDA personnel, the Illinois Department of Conservation and Foresters in the Southern Illinois University at Carbondale School of Agriculture.

The researchers said use of wood as a heat source has doubled in the United States since 1974. The popularity of wood is expected to grow, they said.

Other facts about firewood in Illinois:

— Oak comprised more than half of the wood cut for firewood.

— About 97 percent of the wood came from privately-owned lands.

— Forty-six percent of the wood came from rural wooded areas; 23 percent was cut in cities and villages; 21 percent was cut from fence rows and yards; and 10 percent was cut from pasture and cropland.

— Despite having the greatest proportion of forested land, southern Illinois did not claim the largest producing counties. Three counties produced more than 100,000 cords each.

— Will, McHenry and Cook in northern Illinois.

Weber files libel lawsuit

Don W. Weber, a former Madison County state's attorney who was sued for $1 million in a libel action brought in December by County Board member Charles Burns, is seeking $3.1 million from Burns in a counterclaim for libel.

Weber's counterclaim — alleges Burns distributed an allegedly libelous letter written by Amiel Cueto, a Belleville attorney, which was based in part on statements made by Marvin Darling, an office administrator fired by Weber.

IN DECEMBER, Burns, a Democrat, alleged his reputation was damaged by Weber, a Republican, in statements published in the Dec. 6 issue of the Edwardsville Intelligencer.

Weber reportedly said Burns does not represent the interests of his district, but represents the interests of "the Tri-Cities area" and James W. Barton, a former county supervisor of assessments who faces criminal charges.

In his answer to Burns' allegations, Weber denies that Burns was of "good name and reputation" and alleges he was of "bad reputation and repute."

WEBER LISTED several alleged facts by Burns which he said support this contention.

Weber admitted he made the statements alleged by Burns but denied the statements were untrue, defamatory or libelous.

He said they are "true and are fair comment about a public official concerning a matter of public concern."

In his counterclaim, Weber said Burns published the Cueto letter by circulating it in Madison and St. Clair counties on Jan. 18, 1983. Weber was then state's attorney.

WEBER ALLEGED statements in the letter are libelous in that they said he was guilty of various crimes when he was not, and that the statements injured him and his reputation.

Weber said Burns knew the statements were false but circulated them with "reckless disregard" of the truth.

The Cueto letter is also the basis of libel actions filed by Weber and his wife in 1984. Weber seeks $3 million in damages from Cueto and $3.1 million from Darling. Weber's wife, Virginia, is seeking $4.2 million from Cueto and Darling in a separate lawsuit.

A REMINDER FROM THE LAW TODAY

In recent months, newspapers, television and the rest of the media have devoted a tremendous amount of coverage to the issue of medical malpractice. Many of these programs and articles convey the impression that members of the medical profession are victims of baseless malpractice actions brought by clever lawyers, and that those suits cause the cost of insurance and medical care to skyrocket. Is this true? A recent study by the Public Citizen Health Research Group shows that the medical profession almost never disciplines those doctors who do not do their jobs right. During the year 1983, for example, medical authorities in nine states and the District of Columbia took NO SERIOUS DISCIPLINARY ACTION against any of the 18,000 doctors who practice in those areas. Can it be seriously said that not one of these doctors ever failed to live up to the standards of care expected of them? Of course not. These figures suggest that, instead of concentrating its efforts on making it harder for injured people to recover, the medical profession would best serve society by taking steps to ensure that its less capable members either sharpen their skills or find other lines of work. Such steps would lower insurance costs while providing increased protection to the general public.

We will be discussing this and other relevant topics on this Tuesday's program.

Two assistance programs for older citizens expanded

A new law making over 80,000 more senior citizens eligible for property tax and pharmaceutical relief from the state has gone into effect, according to State Rep. Sam Wolf, D-Granite City.

Wolf said the new law, which was effective on Jan. 1, increases the household income eligibility limits for the state's Circuit Breaker and Pharmaceutical Assistance programs.

"Income eligibility is now $14,000 for both programs, an increase of $2,000," Wolf said. "Senior citizens who own or rent a home and previously had incomes too high to qualify should have their eligibility for the programs re-checked through the Illinois Department of Revenue."

"Since income eligibility for these programs has not been increased in nearly six years, expansion of the program is warranted," Wolf said. "Annual property tax relief through the Circuit Breaker is made through grants calculated by a formula based on household income."

"Eligibility for free heart and blood pressure medicine through the Pharmaceutical Assistance program is directly linked to eligibility and participation in the Circuit Breaker program. The application for pharmaceutical benefits is included in the single Circuit Breaker-Pharmaceutical Assistance form (IL-2363)."

Extra application forms are available in Rep. Wolf's district office at 1506 Johnson Road, Granite City. The Department of Revenue's toll-free number is 1-800-732-8866.

Weight control classes offered

A series of weight control classes for children will be offered at St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City starting Feb. 1.

"Weigh to Go," a program for children ages 8 to 11 and their parents, consists of six weekly classes held on Saturdays from 10 to 11 a.m.

"Weigh to Go" offers counseling in successful weight control methods that combine good nutrition and physical activity. Parents attend separate classes offered at the same time as the children's classes. All classes are taught by registered dietitians.

Registration deadline is Jan. 30. Cost for the classes is $50. For more information or to register, Nutrition Education Services can be called at 798-3492.

Q. I'm 17 years old and have just begun my first job. I want to open a checking account. However, I've never before written a check. I'd like to know if there are any tips or rules I should know to avoid mistakes or having other people change my checks?

A. A good way to begin anything new is correctly, with good habits. First, always use nonerasable ink when writing a check — never pencil. Make sure your check is dated correctly. To insure safety, write the dollar amount in figures as close to the printed dollar sign as possible. Don't leave gaps between the figures. Then, spell out the amount in words on the long line ending with the printed words "dollar." Begin writing as close to the left edge of the line as possible. Fill in any space left after writing with a line so the amount can't be changed. Get into the habit of recording your checks in your ledger as soon as the check is written. If you wait, you'll forget it. And, the last thing to do is sign your check after everything else is filled in. A signed blank check is an open invitation for trouble.

Quarter million now live in Madison County

The 1980s have been a period of modest population growth for the St. Louis region, with Madison County rising from 247,691 in 1980 to an estimated 250,000 people in January 1986.

"Population estimates just completed by the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council show about 2,350,200 persons now live in the Gateway region," said Glenn Griffin, manager of general planning and forecasting at the Council. Gateway coordinates planning and actions by governmental bodies throughout the bi-state area.

The 2,350,200 figure is an increase of 26,400 from the 1980 census of 2,323,800 residents.

THE GATEWAY region includes the City of St. Louis; the Missouri counties of Franklin, Jefferson, St. Charles and St. Louis; and the Illinois counties of Madison, Monroe and St. Clair.

"Although the population increase is small, it continues the growth trend begun in 1984," Griffin said. "This trend is due primarily to increased development and the general improvement of the economy, leading to more jobs."

"DESPITE A HOUSING construction slowdown in the first few years of the 1980s, overall construction has been steady."

"This steady trend has been due to substantial commercial and industrial projects throughout the region."

"The region's population trend during the remainder of the 1980s will be influenced largely by the region's economy," according to Griffin.

"BECAUSE EMPLOYMENT is a major factor in maintaining population and stimulating growth, continued efforts to expand and diversify the region's economy are essential."

"Future studies by East-West Gateway will monitor and analyze population changes as they relate to the economy."

The 1980 census and 1986 estimates, in that order, follow:

City of St. Louis, 453,085 and 428,700, a population decline.
St. Louis County, 973,896 and 986,600
St. Charles County, 144,107 and 167,100
Jefferson County, 146,183 and 155,000
Franklin County, 71,233 and 74,400
Madison County, 247,691 and 250,000
St. Clair County, 267,531 and 288,200
Monroe County, 20,117 and 20,200

Alleged drug kingpin goes on trial Feb. 3

Richard Dial Thorp, alleged head of "The Company," an international marijuana smuggling ring, is scheduled to go to trial Feb. 3 in U.S. District Court in Alton.

Thorp's trial has been delayed since last July by defense motions and negotiations among prosecutors and defense attorney Gage Sherwood of Bethalto over which court jurisdiction in the country will take him to trial first.

Thorp, 38, formerly of Wood River, pleaded innocent last August to racketeering and drug dealing in a 41-count indictment returned in U.S. District Court in Alton in 1989.

THE INDICTMENT charges he was founder of "The Company," an operation which smuggled tons of marijuana into the U.S.

Thorp in addition is charged in drug cases in federal courts in Atlanta and Arizona, and state courts in two counties in Florida.

He also faces a 20-year prison sentence in state court in Georgia on a drug charge.

"We are ready to go to trial in Alton Feb. 3," said Chief Assistant U.S. Attorney Clifford Proud. "The government has an extremely large number of witnesses and evidence from all over the country."

HOUSE BURGLARIZED, 2 MEN FLEE FROM OWNER

Rodney Walker, 1734 Second St., Madison, returned to his home at 9:46 p.m. Jan. 17 and found the front door open. When he entered the dwelling, he saw two men inside; as they ran toward Garasche Homes, he gave chase but lost the pair.

Missing from the house were tools and a video cassette recorder, with a total value of $450.

THORP WAS CAPTURED in July in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., when he casually walked into the Acapulco Mexican Restaurant where FBI agents were having a farewell dinner for a staff member.

Since 1980, he had eluded agents of the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration and police across the United States and South America.

In 1979, Thorp was sentenced to 20 years in prison on drug charges in state court in Georgia. During the trial, Thorp, who was on bond, walked out of the courtroom and disappeared.

He was subsequently convicted and sentenced to the 20-year term.

IN NOVEMBER 1980, "The Company" drug ring was broken by a network of police and federal drug agents across the country, and Thorp was indicted in Alton. He remained at large, however, until last July.

He is held in the U.S. Marshal's confinement cell at the St. Clair County Jail, Belleville, pending trial.

If convicted, he could get more than 200 years in prison on 40 counts, plus life, without parole, on another count in the smuggling operation, which grossed $60 million.

SHOPPER EXPOSES SELF

The girls described the man as 6 feet tall, 30 years old, having a beard and moustache. He was wearing eyeglasses, a brown suede coat and blue sweat pants.

Warren A. DeBow, 33, of 311 Weaver St., Venice, was charged with disorderly conduct and possession of a hypodermic syringe when arrested at 2 a.m. Jan. 19. He also was booked on a warrant alleging failure to appear on a disorderly conduct charge.

The arrest occurred in the 300 block of Weaver Street where officers went after being told of a fight in progress. A vehicle was leaving the area at the time and a woman said three men had threatened her. DeBow, apparently not involved in the fight incident but at the scene, allegedly became loud and profane and was ordered to go into his house. When he allegedly came back outdoors, he was arrested. The syringe was in his shirt pocket, police alleged.

days after the beginning of the school year.

The Education Reform Act also requires copies to be provided to parents or guardians of any student transferring into the district within 15 days of starting classes.

"On recommendations by the board's personnel committee, Lionel Wiley and Terry Cooper were hired as custodians on a permanent basis."

THE NEW EMPLOYEES are replacing Fred Griffin, who retired, and Eddie Salmend, who resigned for health reasons.

Since the latter two men left, the district hired substitute custodians on an interim basis prior to choosing permanent replacements from among a large number of applicants, Vickers said.

Board Administrator Michael Bilbrey provided information on restrictions involved in the issuance of Life-Safety bonds.

ISSUANCE of such bonds was proposed at the board's last meeting to meet the cost of completing renovation projects to bring school buildings into compliance with the Illinois Life-Safety Code.

"The regional superintendent of schools has to state these conditions exist and have not been met and this also has to be approved by the state superintendent of education," Bilbrey said.

"The district also must have sufficient funds in its building operating and maintenance fund to make the necessary improvements," the attorney said.

APPROVAL from state authorities to issue bonds is received, the county clerk can extend a tax rate of up to five cents per $100 assessed valuation to repay the cost without voter approval, Bilbrey said.

Venice has about $57,000 in Life-Safety money, far short of the estimated several hundred thousand dollars needed to complete safety work at the schools.

"I don't think we'd have any problem with borrowing, but I'll do some more research on this point and report back to you," he told the board.

escrow, meaning as much as $77,400 could be withheld from the levee district.

Holding protested taxes in escrow means some taxing districts may be forced to borrow more money to meet expenses this year.

But Greathouse refuses to rely on tax anticipation warrants.

"NO, NO, no, no, no. I would rather have cutbacks than borrow," he said.

St. Clair County still owes MESD $350,000 in 1985 collections on 1984 taxes, he said. All tax revenues for the year have been received from Madison County, he said.

The protested taxes may affect the district's 1986 budget, which was presented Thursday to the MESD Board of Commissioners for its review.

THE $3,621,800 tentative budget for the levee district is $42,150 more than last year's budget.

The budget includes funds for dredging of the Cahokia Canal. The district is to receive $500,000 in Build Illinois state funds to begin dredging the canal.

Budgeted for 1986 in the general fund is $2,876,890, including $1,916,940 for the repair and maintenance of levees, ditches, canals and pump stations.

ANOTHER $163,450 has been budgeted for the administration department, $50,000 for consulting engineers and $746,500 for general maintenance.

The capital improvement fund is appropriated $150,000 for canal improvements, while $300,000 has been budgeted for emergency services and disaster operations.

The tentative budget earmarks $135,000 for the liability insurance fund. The district has been unable to obtain liability insurance this year.

ANOTHER $140,000 is budgeted for the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund.

And the MESD budget allocates $20,000 for auditing fees and accounting services.

Arbor Day trees offered to students

Tree seedlings for Arbor Day programs are available to schools from the Illinois Department of Conservation for distribution to children in kindergarten through eighth grade, according to Conservation Director Michael Witte.

Arbor and Bird Day will be celebrated in Illinois on April 25.

TO QUALIFY for Arbor Day tree seedlings, a program on trees must be given to students who will receive the seedlings.

For educational purposes, each student may be given one tree.

SEEDLINGS ARE SOLD in bundles of 25 for $2.50. Orders must be received by March 31 to ensure delivery by April 25.

The order must include the school's address, the name(s) of the teacher(s), the number of students involved and the program date.

When ordering, "Arbor Day Program" is to be written on the order form. Community groups are being encouraged to participate in this program by purchasing seedlings for schools with Arbor Day programs.

AN ARBOR DAY education packet will be sent to teachers prior to the date of their program. The packet is designed to help teachers present a program on trees.

For more information, order forms or additional assistance, Quad-Citians may contact the Department of Conservation, Division of Forest Resources and Natural Heritage, 524 S. Second St., Springfield, Ill. 62706 or phone 1-217-782-2861.

Public funds now more profitable

More than a year of lobbying by Illinois State Treasurer James H. Donnewald has paid off for taxpayers nationwide, with the U. S. Treasury approving a new banking facility, he said Thursday. For the first time, it fully guarantees the security of invested public funds, he asserted.

An Investment Safekeeping Account will be available to all states and municipalities for handling one of the most popular yet controversial cash management tools available to public investors — repurchase agreements. Illinois' account will be opened at the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago within the next three months.

"ALL GOVERNMENT units, from states to municipalities to school districts, will be able to invest in lucrative 'repos' without the considerable risk it used to entail," Donnewald said.

In a repurchase agreement, an investor like a city or state buys government securities from a bank or securities dealer, who in turn agrees to buy back (repurchase) the securities after a specified period of time at an agreed-upon rate of return.

In 1982, a New York federal judge ruled that securities involved in a repurchase agreement transaction were collateral backing a cash loan, rather than securities involved in an investment transaction — bought and paid for.

"THIS MEANT that in the event of a failure of a securities dealer, the securities exchanged with the investor were subject to the automatic liquidation provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, exposing investors to possible loss through corporate liquidation proceedings."

The 177th birthday of Abraham Lincoln, 18th president of the United States, will be celebrated at historic sites throughout his hometown on Sunday, Feb. 9, and Wednesday, Feb. 12, the Illinois state holiday.

Highlighting activities on Feb. 12 will be the opening of the Lincoln-Herndon Law Office state historic site and the Abraham Lincoln Association banquet featuring Gov. Mario M. Cuomo of New York as speaker.

ON FEB. 9 at 10:30 a.m., the 39th annual pilgrimage to Lincoln's Tomb sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars will begin with a parade of flags at the Oak Ridge Cemetery and proceed to the Lincoln's Tomb state historic site, located within the cemetery.

Ceremonies honoring the memory of Lincoln will include a eulogy by the Veterans of Foreign Wars national commander in chief, John S. Straum. The 14th Regiment-Illinois Volunteer Infantry Reactivated will also participate. The public is invited to attend.

During the week of Feb. 9 through Feb. 15, every person to tour Lincoln's Tomb will receive a complimentary poster of Abraham Lincoln. The success of the Donnewald initiative, he believes, means that the repo transaction is listed on the Federal Reserve System's wire, in effect immediately transferring the security to the buyer's possession. "This small listing has a huge effect: if the repurchaser fails, the securities are owned by the listed buyer and can be sold at will."

"Establishment of this account is a significant improvement in the safety of investments by public treasurers, offering the highest degree of protection available for investment of the taxpayer's dollar," Donnewald said. "We've been pursuing this for quite a while and, with the help of Sen. Alan Dixon, it has just been officially approved."

"BY INVESTING public funds in repo agreements, states and cities are able to earn interest on cash reserves without committing those funds for long periods of time."

"An overnight turnover in the repurchase market is common, with repurchase agreements often paying a higher rate of return than certificates of deposit or other conventional investments. The primary advantage of repos is that they can be tailored to any liquidity need, from overnight to several months."

"Governments with large cash balances are able to earn big returns on these funds by arranging repos. Such a transaction converts the public's demand deposit balances into an interest-earning asset."

"IN THE LAST YEAR, Illinois invested an average of $500 million daily in repurchase agreements, earning nearly $300 million in interest for the people of Illinois."

"Since most of the interest income goes into general revenue, wise investments that bring high rates of return directly benefit every citizen. The state has $425 million in the repo market, roughly 25 percent of the treasurer's portfolio.

"Traditionally, investors have allowed banks and dealers to hold their own securities under repos, confirming the identity of the securities to the investor by phone and later through a written confirmation."

"Prior to the establishment of this new safekeeping facility, third-party verification and holding of repurchase agreement securities have been extremely costly and impractical because of the cross-country trading and short holding periods."

"WITH FRIGHTENING losses in the past few years, some municipalities are getting out of the repo market altogether, or investing only with local institutions."

"This not only results in fewer funds available to financial institutions for financing their daily operations, it also reduces the flexibility of the public investor in providing appropriate liquidity to pay bills as they are presented."

"In the future, access to the Fed Securities Systems will allow public treasurers to become full trading partners in the financial markets, protecting the public's interest in the process."

Joining Donnewald at a Chicago news conference were Iowa State Treasurer Michael Fitzgerald, Cook County Treasurer Ed Rosewell, Chicago City Treasurer Cecil Farrow and the executive director of the Illinois Municipal League, Steve Sargent.

prints, which were donated to the site, will also be given to every child in the state, from kindergarten through 12th grades.

LINCOLN-HERNDON Law Offices will be open to the public from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily for the first time Feb. 12 since being purchased by the state. The Illinois Historic Preservation Agency is responsible for administration of the site, 211 S. Sixth St. in downtown Springfield.

The 33rd annual American Legion Lincoln Day pilgrimage and ceremony will be held at Lincoln's Tomb Feb. 12 at 10:30 a.m.

Lincoln Day, national commander in chief, John S. Straum. The 14th Regiment-Illinois Volunteer Infantry Reactivated will also participate. The public is invited to attend.

The morning's activities will include a national radio broadcast provided through station WCVS from the burial chambers within the monument.

THE ILLINOIS STATE Historical Society and the Abraham Lincoln Association will present a symposium at 1:30 p.m. Feb. 12 in the Hall of Representatives of the Old State Capitol.

the group still faced a 14-hour bus trip to Cotzal, he said.

"I understand it's a 40-passenger bus with at least 60 people on it, plus goats, chickens and everything else."

THE LAST TIME Hoffman took an overseas flight into unknown territory was in 1969 as a 19-year-old youth, heading to Korea for duty at the Demilitarized Zone.

"I am much more at peace over this trip," he said laughing. Admitting he was excited about going to Central America, Hoffman said, "I will gain experience on this one (trip) and learn how to do these things. It is a real challenge."

HOFFMAN WANTS to take a Spanish language course when he returns home.

"They speak Spanish in the cities, but I understand the people in Cotzal use an Indian dialect or a combination of Spanish and Indian."

Many of the people in Guatemala are Indian, descendants from the Mayan tribes of ancient times. They cling to the ways of their ancestors who lived there long before Columbus found the New World.

AN OVERNIGHT journey to Chimal, Lake Mexico City, the population of Guatemala's Caribbean coastline, is planned, to attend church services.

Coming back, Hoffman and his companions will spend a day in Guatemala City, where women still are not allowed on the streets without a male chaperone.

Before his recent assignment as a detective, Hoffman worked for the police in the Granite City Police Department.

FOR SEVERAL YEARS he served as Officer Friendly, working with school children to explain to them the duties of police officers.

Hoffman also organized the success of a basketball game each February between members of the St. Louis Cardinals football team and local police and fire department personnel.

The police department's share of the proceeds went to police-sponsored youth athletic programs.

A POPULAR CHOICE for the Officer Friendly role, Hoffman still is called that name by many young people in town who remember his visits to their classrooms in the late 1970s.

A generally optimistic person, he was not overly concerned about any problems that might be inherent in the flight or stay in Guatemala.

"I pray God's protection upon us," Hoffman said.

He said he was not sure if the flight or stay in Guatemala would be as easy as he hoped.

County district is taking orders for tree seedlings

The Madison County Soil and Water Conservation District is now taking orders for tree seedlings. The species available are Colorado blue spruce, Norway spruce, Eastern white pine, Canadian hemlock and tulip poplar.

Because of the dense, vigorous, year-round foliage of spruce, pine and hemlock, they are regarded as excellent for use as windbreaks in Illinois. The tulip poplar is a fast-growing ornamental shade tree.

All seedlings will be sold in bundles of 10. The pine, spruce and hemlock are 12 to 18 inches in height from 12 to 16 inches.

The pine and spruce will sell for $10. The hemlock will cost $12.50 for 10.

The tulip poplar is a 2-year seedling, ranging in height from 14 to 24 inches, and will sell for $5.

Orders should be placed now to reserve a selection, a spokesman said. The seedlings are to be picked up on Saturday, April 5, between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. at the district office on Old Alton Road in Edwardsville.

Planting instructions and related information will be available that day.

The Madison County Soil and Water Conservation District can be contacted, at 620-01 or 636-5166.

GRANITE CITY — In what was the biggest game of the year for Granite City, one of the smallest players on the court helped sway the outcome.

Joe Gray, a 5-10 senior guard, led five players in double figures as Granite City beat Alton 88-80 Friday night to grab a share of first place in the Southwestern Conference basketball race.

The win pulled the Warriors even with Alton in the SWC at 5-1 prior to Saturday's games. Alton was to play at East St. Louis. Overall, Granite City moved to 15-2. Alton is 15-4.

"You've got two great offensive teams, two great passing teams. It was a fun game to watch," said Granite City coach Don Deterding.

Gray pumped in 25 points, a season best. Chris Viezer and Jamie Hogan added 18 points. Tom Taylor (14) and Tim Hogan (13) rounded out the scoring for the Warriors.

"I want to tell you I thought Joe Gray played the best game of his career," said Deterding. "But not just because he was the leading scorer, but his passing and the way he handled things out there."

People started lining up two-and-a-half hours before the tipoff to buy the remaining tickets that went on sale. The jammed-packed crowd at Memorial Gymnasium was not disappointed. The game was billed as a shootout and the guns were smoking when it ended.

"Anyone who left and didn't like this game, well they just don't like basketball," Deterding said.

Larry Smith, Alton's all-state candidate, poured in 35 points. But Granite City hounded teammate Bobby Collins. He scored 26 in the first meeting, but Friday night Collins was not a factor scoring just 4 points.

"He was missing a lot of outside shots that he hit the first time we played them," Deterding said.

"It's really tough to ask one guy to do it all in a game like this," said Alton coach Stan McAfoos.

But Smith, headed for the University of Illinois, carried the Redbirds in the first quarter. He scored Alton's first six points, four of them coming on dunks.

Smith had 10 points in the first quarter and 20 by halftime.

"What can you say about him that hasn't already been said," Deterding said. "We knew he was going to get the ball. We tried to put two guys on him, but he's so quick and smooth we couldn't even do that."

"I'm on his handwagon."

In a run-and-gun game, Granite City outscored Alton 26-19 in the decisive third quarter.

Gray dropped in 12 points in the period including three fast break baskets in a row as Granite City led 67-60 after three quarters.

"We thought if we could come out and jump on them quick in the third quarter we might get them down," Gray said.

But, Smith kept the Redbirds in the game. He scored Alton's first 10 points of the fourth quarter as the Redbirds mounted a comeback.

"It was the same type of game as the first one, except we made the jump and got out in front and they had to come back," Deterding said.

A slam by Smith trimmed the Warriors lead to 73-68 with a little over four minutes left.

Tim Hogan and Tim Simmons traded baskets before Gray took over. He canned two foul shots then on the Warriors next possession, drove to the basket, spun, twisted and laid the ball in with his right hand.

Gray was fouled and he sank the free throw giving Granite City an 80-70 lead with 2:18 remaining.

The senior captain thrust his fist into the air as Memorial Gymnasium exploded. On the bench, Deterding, too, pumped his fist in excitement.

"I got a little bit emotional about this one," Deterding said.

After that, Alton was never able to comeback. The closest the Redbirds came was five points, 82-77 on a basket by Tony Herd.

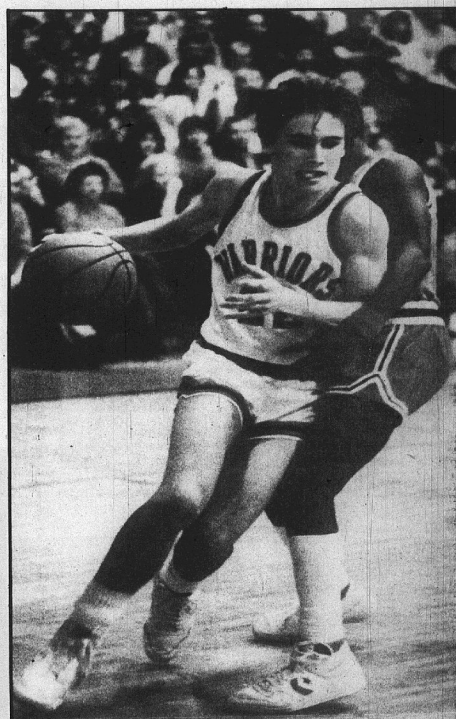

"Last time they made the spurt, and we had to come back. They were able to comeback some, but playing catch-up all night can mentally drain you," Deterding said.

McAfoos was disappointed of his team's play defensively. "We kept talking to Collins and (Matt) Hausman to play defense. We did a good job on Tim Hogan, but Taylor and Viezer hurt us inside."

Herd hounded Tim Hogan all night. After Hogan's 28 points in the first meeting, the junior got Alton's attention.

"It was tough, they had guys on me all night, Hogan said. "Herd is Trojans rally for win

LEBANON — In one of the greatest fourth quarter comebacks you will ever see, the Madison Trojans roared back for a stunning 67-58 win Friday night at Lebanon.

The Trojans, on the brink of losing their third game in a row, trailed 53-41 with 6:20 to play, but outscored the highly-ranked Greyhounds 26-5 for the rest of the game to come up with the victory.

Reggie Young led the way with 19 points and a great defensive job on Lebanon's strong center, Laurence Bass, who had 16 points, but only 6 in the final three quarters.

The Greyhounds led 57-47 with five minutes left, but the Trojans scored the next 10 points, tying the game on two free throws by Eric Jacks with 2:44 left. Steve Schieppe made a free throw with 2:30 left to put Lebanon back up by one, but Darnell Marshall shot a 3-point play with 1:51 left to put Madison ahead for good.

Valentine and Marshall combined for three uncontested layups in the final minute to blow the game open. The Trojans scored 20 of the game's last 21 points.

The Trojans are now 11-7. Lebanon fell to 15-4, losing only for the second time in their last 17 outings. Full details on the Trojans' thrilling win will appear in the Wednesday Journal.

Hard work pays off

By AL BARNES

Staff writer

Great basketball players have something in common with the truly great virtuoso piano and violin players.

It is common practice, no, really a necessity, for both the basketball players and the musicians to devote at least four hours each day in perfecting their skills. These hours pay off in brilliant careers for the violinists and the cage players.

Locally, in Venice, Madison and Granite City, which between them have produced four Illinois High School championships, it is very true.

The 1940 Granite City team of Andy Phillip and Evon Parsagarian, et al, was born when those two young men, with their friends, spent literally thousands of hours each year playing pickup scrimmage games over in West Granite.

Nowadays, here in Granite City, the charges of Coach Don Delderfield can be seen any day during the long, hot summer days shooting baskets at either the Wilson Park courts at the south end of the tennis courts, or on the Brown Recreation Center courts behind Otis' Farm Fresh market.

Just 10 years ago, then-Venice Coach Rich Essington saw his Red Devils win the Class A title in a season that had the entire Tri-City area thrilled to death. Southwestern Illinois prep basketball fans will never forget Reggie Gardner's do-or-die desperation shot from mid-court which beat Carmel to send Venice to Champaign to win it all.

Gardner, Jeff Corrie, Mike Henry, James Crowder, James Turner and

Mike Logan, all key players on that team, plus all the fellows on Larry Graham's two state winners at Madison, were products of the outdoor courts at Dunbar School.

The courts at Dunbar are seldom empty of players. I've spent many hours watching the kids scrimmage on those courts. There was, and still is, some great basketball played there.

Just ask Henry Baucum, now in the real estate business, but then the owner and operator of a grocery store across from Dunbar. I first saw the boys practicing on the courts while I was visiting Baucum on business.

Those courts were then, and I guess now, always full of boys from sunup to sundown. And, if you love basketball like I do, that's the place to go to see some great basketball skills on display. If you stay long enough, you'll see some moves that even Magic Johnson would be proud of.

In fact, says Essington now, "those boys on my 1975 state champions were winners. They started out for Stan Lynch in grade school and won the Illinois 8th Grade Tournament. And, counting the 1974-75 season, those kids had a collective 121-13 record."

Now, with Clinton Harris' Red Devils taking the title of the St. Louis metropolitan basketball world, it seems Hall doesn't suffer an accident, everyone is talking about another trip to Champaign.

And as long as we're dreaming, it wouldn't be too much to ask to see Tip Hogan and his hard-playing Granite City Warriors' team make that trip to the Assembly Hall in March.

GC girls, Stars both lose

Sue Gilmer had 16 points and Jerri Wiley added 12 points and 15 rebounds as the Belleville East girls basketball team led to a 56-36 triumph over Granite City in a semifinal game of the Hazelwood Central Tournament Thursday.

Alicia Melton paced the Warriors (2-9) with 16 points. Loretta Cox added 8 points and Maria Toeniskoetter and Betsy Barrington had 6 points apiece to round out the Warriors' scoring.

Wiley, the leading rebounder among girls in the Metro East area with 12.8 per game, added 5 steals to her performance. Gilmer had 12 rebounds.

The Lancers led 13-8 after one quarter and extended the lead to 26-16 at halftime. The Warriors still trailed by only 11, 36-25, after three quarters, but the Lancers outscored them 22-11 in the fourth period.

The Warriors were scheduled to play Hazelwood Central, 55-32 losers to Belleville West in Thursday's other semifinal, at 6:30 p.m. Friday in the third place game of the tournament.

The Warriors resume their regular schedule Tuesday night against Cahokia at 6 p.m. at Memorial Gymnasium.

Meanwhile, in Flat River, Mo., the Granite City Campus Stars dropped the first round game of the Mineral Area Tournament to Jefferson Junior College Thursday, 75-57.

Jeff Gray of Granite City led the Stars with 19 points, while Perry Jones (14 points) and Mike Helmer (12) were also in double figures.

really quick on defense.

Like the first meeting, an 85-80 Alton victory, the action was fast-paced.

Granite City jumped off to a four-point lead as Alton missed its first three shots from the field. Two times in the opening quarter Granite City lead by six. Alton tied the score at 18-18 on a dunk by Collins as the first quarter ended.

The Warriors led by as many as six (31-25) with 3:55 left in the first half. But poor free throw shooting allowed Alton to come back. Granite City missed three consecutive front end of one-and-ones. However, Gray tied the game at 41-41 just before the half ended on a one-handed tip of a missed shot.

For the game, Granite City was 40-of-65 (62 percent) from the floor. The Warriors had entered the game shooting 55 percent from the field as a team.
